Parking at Harvard Garage

In order to park in a Harvard University garage during this lecture, you first need to register for an online account and then use it to purchase a parking pass.* The weeknight rate is $10. Permits become available for purchase two weeks from the event date.

*Please note that you will be required to print out the permit at the time of purchase (the pass will not be sent to you). You will also need your license plate number to complete the purchase.
